

Theme/	Peritextual features	Multiliteracies	Teacher	Notes from the Picturebook			education	classroom
October	Front cover: refer to author and	Visual: noticing embossed	Working with the	Understanding the 2018	illustrator and predict about main	print, upper/lower case	cover/reading	importance of characters	letters and use of colour;	images	friendship in a Friendship	Bart and a state of the	reading and interpreting	1	child's life;
(Theme of Dutch national	Back cover: read the blurb	illustrations and facial	Length: 8.07	Droporing o
children's book	(Film on YouTube is cut)	expressions		Preparing a poster in groups
week)	Length: 2.45	Learning: predicting and		Describing a friend
WCCK)	Longin. 2.40	recalling		Describing a mena
Imaginary Fred				Length: 10.52
by Eoin Colfer		Emotional: empathising and
and Oliver		personalising
Jeffers
		Length: 13.57
November	Front cover:	Visual and emotional:	Linking images to	Understanding
2018	Talk about the colour red – what	reading facial expressions	meaning to	words that hurt and
Dieturebeeks	does it mean to children;	and body language and	support language	what damage mean
Picturebooks against Bullying	compare 'bull' and 'bully'	recognising how feelings and emotions change	teachers	words can have;
(Anti-Bullying	Back cover:	and emotions change	Length: 7.22	Reading body
Week)	Blurbs can be read as an	Learning: reflecting and	Length. 7.22	language;
VVOOR	introduction to the story.	giving personal response;		languago,
Bully by Laura		predicting, self-assessing		Performing
Vaccaro	Prologue image	Film: planning a book traile		dialogues -
	First read aloud, show the			working with stress
	children and read the speech	Length: 8.44		and intonation bubble. Repeated Read alouds
	ask children to think about what			Length: 13.48 is happening here.

Dedication (back of the book): Read this out to the children and maybe talk about this.  Title page Consider talking about the fence which appears through the whole book.  Length: 6.05  Front cover: Point out the Caldecott Honour Award on the front cover; Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this with the children if you wish.  Dedication (back of the book): Title page Consider talking about the fence whole book.  Elim: using the book trailer as a point of entry and for making predictions  Emotional: empathising  Morking with individual double spreads  Length: 7.06  What do we know about our grandfathers – making a lap book  Length: 5.53  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques  Length: 6.08
Consider talking about the fence which appears through the whole book.  Length: 6.05  December 2018  Love and Care Care Care Dy Lane Smith Signary Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this word and special makes and the special makes and the pook trailer as a point of entry and for making predictions  Eilm: using the book trailer as a point of entry and for making predictions  Eilm: using the book trailer as point of entry and for making predictions  Emotional: empathising  What do we know about our grandfathers – making a lap book estimated the picture book for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this		Read this out to the children and
December 2018  Eront cover: Point out the Caldecott Honour Award on the front cover; Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Eilm: using the book trailer as a point of entry and for making predictions  Emotional: empathising  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this		Consider talking about the fence which appears through the whole book.
Point out the Caldecott Honour Award on the front cover; Love and Care  Grandpa Green by Lane Smith  Mat is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Point out the Caldecott Honour Award on the front cover; Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Emotional: empathising  Length: 7.06  What do we know about our grandfathers — making a lap book  Length: 5.53  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques
Award on the front cover; Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Award on the front cover; Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What do we know about our grandfathers – making a lap book  Length: 7.06  Length: 7.06  What do we know about our grandfathers – making a lap book  Length: 5.53  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques			_	_
Love and Care  Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Predict who the characters are and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Emotional: empathising  Nature: identifying trees: evergreen/deciduous, understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques	2018				linking to our roots;
and their relationship; What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Emotional: empathising  Length: 7.06  about our grandfathers — making a lap book  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Emotional: empathising  Length: 7.06  Auture: identifying trees: evergreen/deciduous, understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques		,	making predictions	spreads
Grandpa Green by Lane Smith       What is topiary? Share this word and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.       Mature: identifying trees: evergreen/deciduous, understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds       Length: 5.53         Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green       Visual: interpreting illustrations         Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this       Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques	Love and Care by Lane Smith and explain the elephant tree is an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Nature: identifying trees: evergreen/deciduous, understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques		• •	Emotional: empathising	Length: 7.06
an example as this.  Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  evergreen/deciduous, understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques					9
Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  understanding the changing seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques	by Lane Smith		, ,		making a lap book
Endpapers: After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  seasons, and wind dispersal of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques		an example as this.
After sharing the picturebook for the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  of seeds  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques		F. L			Length: 5.53
the first time, ask children why they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques			· •
they think the endpapers are dark green  Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Visual: interpreting illustrations  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques			of seeds
Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this			Viewels into monting
Dust jacket flaps: These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this  Learning: predicting, becoming aware of memory techniques
These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this		dark green	IIIUStrations
These make reference to Lane Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this		Dust jacket flans:	Learning: predicting Smith and his wife who is a book designer. You can share this designer. You can share this Length: 6.08

				$\overline{}$
	Notice the cleverness of the opening out pages at the end of the book to show Grandpa Green's garden  Length: 7.07
January 2019  Celebrating Inclusion  Perfectly Norman by Tom Percival	Front cover: Show the cover, don't mention the wings yet, unless the children mention them. If so ask them to predict what they might mean about Norman  Back cover: Read the blurb. Emphasise the word wings and return to the front cover if children haven't already noticed the wings.  Prologue image: The illustration is sequential to that on the back cover. Children might notice this over repeated readings.  Title page Setting for the visual narrative. Note the grey colour, with Norman in colour after several exposures to the book you might talk about this with the children.	Visual and emotional: reading facial expressions and identifying a cycle of emotions  Film: interpreting a book trailer  Length: 7.10	Identifying adjectives and adding creative tasks  Length: 5.44	How are we different how are we the same?  I should always believe in myself and my "wings" that will let me fly;  Making individual posters - creating and describing an imaginary person.  Length: 7.05

February	Dedication: A blue colour with a blue bird. Return to this after the children have experienced the book and ask them why it is there. Share the dedication and wonder about it together.  Length: 5.22 Come away from the water	Mr Gumpy's Motor Car.	Courtney:	The Magic Bed:
2019	Shirley:	Literacy: recognising rich authentic language	Reading images and developing	Opening a door to dreamland.
Remembering	Front cover:	The Observation Board of	imagination
John	Ask children to predict what the	The Shopping Basket.	L a m author 4.0.07	Designing a bed -
Burningham	book will be about.	Learning: predicting,	Length: 10.07	learning about
Como outou	Endnanara	memorising, subtracting,		unusual beds.
Come away from the water	Endpapers: A pirate's map, which can be	sequencing, personalising;		Guessing the
Shirley; Mr	returned to and looked at	Aldo:		content of a book by Gumpy's	closely.	Emotional: understanding		the cover (different
Outing, Mr	Closely.	loneliness		books by John
Gumpy's Motor	Title page	TOTICITIC 33		Burningham)
Car, The	This presents the main	Cloudland:		Darriingnam)
Shopping	characters flying a pirate's flag.	Visual: interpreting		Length: 8.02
Basket, Aldo,	and a second s	illustrations		g
Cloudland,	There are lots of clues in these
Courtney; The	peritextual features which	Length: 11.08
Magic Bed	children will use to predict a story about pirates.
	In fact, it is two visual narratives <ul> <li>the parents' boring day at the</li> </ul> beach, and Shirley's adventure with pirates appear on facing pages. It's magical!

	Length: 9.25
March	Front cover:	Learning: recognising traits	Creating book-	Identifying the 2019	Ask the children if they can smell	of perseverance, resilience,	related ELT	elements of the the pancakes.	autonomy and self-help and	reading and writing	story and parts of Pancakes	Daala aasaa	regulation, using a reference	activities	well-known fairy
Mr Wolf's	Back cover: Read blurb and show the	book, writing a list to aid memory, counting and	Length: 7.03	tales.
Pancakes by	illustration of a very full wolf.	checking, predicting,	Lengui. 7.03	Length: 8.56
Jan Fearnley	Return to this once you have	sequencing events and a		Longin 0.00
	shared the picturebook;	process, matching
	Share the review and possibly	characters to events use as a model for writing a review about other picturebooks.	Cultural: recognising fairy
	Title page	tale and nursery rhyme characters, making cross
	Unusual title page illustration	cultural comparisons, with a dedication on it. Share this	researching pancakes with the children and think about	around the world
	what it might mean	Length: 8.39
	Prologue illustration	Lengui. 0.39
	Mr Wolf dusting with a feather duster. Connections can be made with other parts of the book. Help the children make these connections once they have experienced the story.
	nave expendition the story.

April 2019	There are lots of intertextual references to be made in the illustrations. Enjoy them with the children.  Length 9.31  Front cover introduce characters	Environmental: identifying	Micro-teaching	Writing a song,
1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1	(boy and bird);	different landscapes and the		finding happy
Earth Day	(Soy and Sha),	different plants, trees,	Length: 5.15	moments in our Endpapers: Image of the world	flowers and creatures;	201.94.11 01.10	everyday lives.
What a	can be used to talk about where	learning/revising colours of Wonderful	the children live and to label	the rainbow; identifying own		Celebrating happy
World by Tim	other countries they may know;	country on a map of the		events in our lives
Hopgood /		world; planning action to		and enjoying the
Louis	Dedication: worth pointing out	protect the earth and		wonder of ordinary
Armstrong	'For everyone'	drawing up a green		moments.
		classroom action plan
	Title page: ask children to look			Length: 8.00 for the blue bird in all the	Music: understanding the spreads and notice the one he is	different purposes of songs; identifying musical missing from	instruments; recognising
	Length: 5.31	musical notes
		Length: 8.41
May 2019	Format: Opening bottom to top	Literacy: becoming aware	Supplementing	Facing changes as
	Uses the gutter to divide the two	of metaphor	with and exploiting	an inevitable part of
Love is in the	worlds (above and below water)		informational	our life and growth.
Air: Unusual		Learning: activating prior	picturebooks
Friendships	Title page	knowledge, making		Developing a Represents the setting and the	predictions	Length: 4.14	positive attitude to beginning of the visual narrative;

Tadpole's	Predict who the eggs on the leaf	Nature: becoming aware of		changes in our lives
Promise by	might belong to?	the different stages of the		as a key to success.
Jeanne Willis		life cycles of a butterfly and
	Length 6.04	a frog		Making a poster.
		Length: 8.23		Length: 8.50
June 2019	Brown Bear:	Today is Monday:	"Slowly, Slowly,	The Tiny Seed: Slowly", Said the
Celebrating the	Front and back covers: talk	Creating a multilingual	Sloth:	Taking a cross-
world of Eric	about in and out / front and back;	version of the song, Today		curricular approach
Carle	Refer to author and illustrator	is Monday.	Learning about the	to language
(Worldwide			rain forest -	learning/teaching;
Celebration of	Endpapers: first read aloud,	Length: 13.33	different his 90th	recollect colours; repeated read		tribes,animals,	Science:
birthday)	alouds use to remind children of		habitats;	Understanding the
	the animals that appear in the			life cycle of a plant.
Brown Bear,	book;		Using adjectives to
Brown Bear,			describe people;	Length: 8.22
What Do You	Length: 8.07
See?;			Reflecting on
Today is			speed/time;
Monday;
"Slowly, Slowly,			Accepting
Slowly", Said			differences
the Sloth;
The Tiny Seed			Length: 10.10	